A TALK WITH DR. SIEMENS, OF BERLIN.

HE AND DR. BARTH, HE SAYS, ARE HERE TO LOOK AFTER THE INTERESTS OF THE

GERMAN BONDHOLDERS OF THE NORTHERN PACIFIC.

A Tribune reporter called on Dr. Theodore Barth, of Berlin, leader of the Radical Union and member of the Reichstag, and Dr. Siemens, at the Hotel New-Netherlands, yesterday afternoon. Dr. Barth was not in, but Dr. Siemens told the reporter about the object of their trip to this country.

"We hold proxies," he said, "for $20,000,000 of bonds of the Northern Pacific Railroad, and we are here in the interests of the German bondholders to see what the management of the road is going to do. Germany holds about $100,000,000 of bonds, and we expect to get the proxies for nearly all this amount before long. We have talked with Mr. Villard and Mr. Ives and Mr. Belmont. We are not supporting either faction in the management. We merely want to have the interest on the bonds paid."

"I find one weak point in Mr. Belmont's proposition. He says that everything can be arranged all right, but he doesn't say how. We have not yet had time, however, to get at anything definite. In regard to Herr Richter's attack on Dr. Barth, it was merely to get votes. Dr. Barth and Herr Richter are both Liberals, but separated on the question of the Army bill."

"You know how it is in Germany. When they part company they are likely to get bitter. So when Dr. Barth started for America on this mission Herr Richter took the occasion to say to the voters: 'Look at him, rolling in wealth, travelling to America and living on the fat of the land. He cares for the dollars more than for you!'"

For political effect, and because Dr. Barth was not there to defend himself."

"Mrs. Barth and Siemens will visit the World's Fair before they return to Germany."

WORK OF PEABODY FUND TRUSTEES

The trustees of the Peabody Educational Fund held the final session of their annual meeting at the Fifth Avenue Hotel, last night.

There were present Robert C. Winthrop, of Massachusetts; Bishop Whipple, of Minnesota; Samuel A. Green, of Massachusetts; William A. Courtenay, of South Carolina; William Wirt Henry, of Virginia; Henderson M. Sumner, of Alabama; ex-Secretary William C. Endicott, of Massachusetts; and J. L. M. Curry, honorary member and general agent of the fund. The absent members were President Cleveland and James D. Porter, of Tennessee, who did not attend any of the sessions; and William M. Everts, Chief Justice Melville W. Fuller and J. Pierpont Morgan, who were at the meeting on Friday.

The session was spent almost entirely in doing routine business. The following officers were elected for 1893-1894: J. Pierpont Morgan, treasurer; Samuel A. Green, of Massachusetts, secretary; Mr. Everts, first vice-chairman, in place of Hamilton Fish, who died; and Bishop Whipple, of Minnesota, second vice-chairman, in place of Mr. Everts.

Commodore John Robert C. Winthrop, permanent chairman of the Board of Trustees ex-officio. The Auditing Committee—William Wirt Henry and William C. Endicott—reported that they had passed the accounts of the treasurer and the agent of the fund.

The next meeting will be held the first Wednesday in October, 1894, unless otherwise arranged by the chairman and executive committee.

TRANSATLANTIC TRAVELLERS.

The Cunard steamship Umbria carried an exceedingly cosmopolitan crowd when she started for Europe yesterday. Among those on board were Waldemar Lewinsky, and four other Russians; Seraphim Gelat, of Syria; Donald Truphart, of Inverness; Lady Edmond Fitzmaurice, of London; D. Coucha, of Chili; Francis Barron, of Mexico; William von der Heyde, Spanish Consul at Sydney; Mrs. Goldwin Smith, of Toronto; Paul Bureau, of Paris; E. Battagray, of Dublin, and Manoel Duarte da Silva, of New-York.

Among those on the German Lloyd steamer, was Lieutenant H. H. Benham, U. S. A., Dr. Herman von Helmholtz, the German scientist; Ernest Koska, Dr. Max Ehrenreich, Professor R. Decher, Professor G. Hirschfeld, and Professor Klein.

NO INSPECTION OF ISLAND INSTITUTIONS.

The Board of Estimate and Apportionment had arranged to make its annual visit to the Island institutions of the city yesterday, but the yacht race seemed to have more drawing powers, and the visit was postponed. One or two members of the Board of Estimate and Apportionment and some of the Commissioners of Charities and Correction gathered at East Twenty-third-st. at 10:30 in the morning, and, accompanied by Mayor Gilroy and Controller Myers, who were expected to go with them, Learning that they were not coming, the members dispersed. It is probable that no visit will now be made to the Island institutions until after the preliminary meeting of the Board of Estimate and Apportionment.

DEATH OF A NEWSPAPER MAN.

Lafayette F. Briggs, a well-known newspaper man died on Friday at his home, No. 38 St. James Place, Brooklyn. He was in his sixtieth year, and had been identified with newspaper work for nearly forty years. He had been connected with several New-York and Brooklyn newspapers. His death was due to enlargement of the liver, following an attack of the grip, and he was ill several months. The funeral will take place at 2 p. m. to-morrow.

FISCHER DEFENDS HIS TITLE WELL.

HE IS STILL CHAMPION OF CENTRAL PARK. DEFEATING O. M. BOSTWICK, THE CHALLENGER.

The final match in the tennis tournament for the championship of Central Park was decided yesterday afternoon on the lower tennis grounds in the Park. Edwin F. Fischer, who won the championship last fall, successfully defended it against the challenger, O. M. Bostwick, and now has two "legs" on the silver challenge cup.

Bostwick played remarkably well throughout the tournament, defeating T. C. C. (challenger), 6-3, 6-4, 6-4. Consolation Singles, Final Round—Sydney L. Smith, New-York T. C., beat A. E. Burroughs, Central Park, 7-5, 6-1, 6-3.

THE PARTNERS CANNOT AGREE.

A. H. Strouse & Co., manufacturers of dress trimmings and underwear, at No. 226 Church-st., advertised the dissolution of the firm on October 1, and gave notice that the affairs of the firm would be liquidated by Adolph T. Scholle, one of the partners, the other two partners being Alexander H. Strouse and Henry Neuberger. Since then there has been a disagreement among the partners, and the Supreme Court has been asked to take hold of their affairs. Friedman, Levy & Mayer, Mr. Scholle's attorney, have brought suit against Messrs. Strouse and Neuberger, the other partners, for the appointment of a receiver. The order to show cause will come up on Tuesday. The attorneys filed a bond yesterday for an injunction to prevent Messrs. Strouse and Neuberger from disposing of the assets or interfering with the liquidation.

The business was started January 1, 1885, by Messrs. Scholle and Strouse, the first named being regarded as the capitalist of the firm. Mr. Neuberger became a partner January 1, 1892. It is said that the firm owes Scholle Brothers, bankers, $72,000, and that the total liabilities are $85,000. The nominal assets of the firm consist of book accounts, $40,000, materials, $45,000, and machinery which cost $40,000.

SUFFERERS FROM BOOM STORMS TO BE HELPED.

The Maritime Exchange Southern Relief Fund has been increased, since the last report, by the following contributions:

Captain Raynor, $20
Henry Rochell, $20
Morse & Co., $10
Previously acknowledged, $775

Total $1,280

In view of the terrible suffering from the recent storm in the neighborhood of New-Orleans, the committee has decided to divide any contributions that may be received hereafter between the distressed people at the Sea Islands and those on the Gulf Coast, unless contributors express a wish that their subscription be devoted wholly to either.

THE FOUR POLES DISCHARGED.

The four poles who were arrested on suspicion of knowing something about the murder of Otto Schneider, on Samuel McCreery's farm at Flushing, were discharged yesterday morning by Coroner Corey. All the poles told similar stories. They said they had never seen the murdered man until they viewed his body at the morgue. The body will be buried in Potter's Field.

Bloomfield's

SHOES.

The entire stock of S. Bloomfield, for twenty odd years a leading shoe merchant of Sixth Avenue, will be offered, beginning Monday. It includes all the better grades of shoes for ladies, misses, children, men and boys.

As usual in our advertisements, the comparisons made between Sixth Avenue prices and our special sale prices are as fair and accurate as it is possible to make them. It will be seen that the average is very much less than 40 cents on the dollar.

An extra force of sales people will be in attendance. Increased space will be devoted to the sale. There will be so many customers to be served and fitted that we cannot undertake to fill mail orders for these shoes. We recommend an early personal selection as the best way to secure an excellent choice.

A NATURALIZED CITIZEN DETAINED.

Albert Seckinger, a naturalized American citizen, who lives at Aurora, Ill., returned Thursday on a North German Lloyd steamship Spree from a trip to Europe. He was detained at Ellis Island all that night and most of Friday, on suspicion of being an alien contract laborer, although he showed his citizenship papers to the registry clerks. He says no questions were asked him, and that he intends to sue the government for illegal detention.

A POLICEMAN CHARGED WITH ASSAULT.

Charges have been filed with the Park Commissioners against Park Policeman John Mahoney, accusing him of assaulting Mrs. Mary Finn, sixty-five years old, of No. 14 Washington-st., while he was under the influence of liquor. She alleges that he entered her rooms where she was washing clothes, and asked her "If Kate lived there."

On her protesting against his intrusion, she says that he arrested her and took her to the Tombs Police Court. The Park Commissioners have ordered an investigation.

IN THE FIELD OF SPORTS.

THE GIANTS WIN EASILY.

BROOKLYN MEN DOWNED IN THE FIRST GAME OF THE NEW SERIES—SOME BRILLIANT PLAYS.

The Giants and the Bridegrooms began their post-season series for the championship of the metropolitan district at the Polo grounds yesterday. The weather was pleasant, and in spite of the yacht race and the many other sporting features of the day about 3,000 people went to the battle.

The Giants showed up in brilliant form, and won almost as they pleased. Ward and his men have seldom played a better game this year. Rustle was at his best, and he held down the Brooklyn batters to six scored hits, while he did not give a base on balls.

Burke's error, New-York's only blunder, had no effect on the result. Kennedy's curves were lashed so freely that he retired in the fourth in favor of Sharrett.

Many brilliant plays were made, notably running catches by Burke, Stafford, Ford and Griffin, and clever stops and throws by Ward, Fuller, Hatfield and Corcoran.

LaChance, Brooklyn's new catcher, seems to become erratic at trying moments. Therman's home run drive in the second scored four runs. Only one man got as far as third base for Brooklyn, the men from across the bridge making two hits in only one inning, and one of these was a scratch.
